IMPORTANT INFORMATION sent to married en. Address, with four postage stamps, Dr. A. J. THURDELL, New-York.

To the PUBLIC.—ISRAEL COE having thought proper to have inserted in one of the public jour, mais a most multipost libel upon my character, I beg leave to state that I have not robbed the concern, nor swindled my friends, as an investigation will show. On the lat day of January last, I had to my credit on the books of Nace & Reunie, over $12,000. And on the lat of March I had in the concern of Nace & Coe, to my credit, on their books, over $15,000; making in both concerns over $97,000. Since that time I have not drawn from both concerns, for my private use, $4,000 (over and above what I have paid in, since the dates mentioned). These facts the book will show. My private indebtedness unprovided for, is less than $10,000—which must be paid out of my interest in the two concerns, after the copartnership debts are soitled. Therefore, so far from having robbed the concern, it owes me a large amount beyond its obligations for me; and my friends will not be swindled if the affairs of the two concerns are housestly settled up by the parties having them in charge. A tight in vestigation will also prove that I have never received a dollar from either concern my high is not charged to me regularly.
